

Strategic Planning/Board Governance

Speaker: Ken Hein, FCMC, Subcontract Consultant

Introduction

- Greetings and Acknowledgement of Indigenous Peoples
- Purpose of the Presentation:
  - Empowering Indigenous Communities through Strategic Planning, leadership, and Board Governance

Project Governance framework - from intention action

The link between corporate strategy, portfolio, project management and implementation in operation

The Intersection of Strategic Planning and Indigenous Values

- Overview of Indigenous communities' unique challenges and opportunities
- Importance of Cultural Sensitivity in Leadership and Governance

Visionary Leadership in Indigenous Context

- Definition of Visionary Leadership
- Case Studies: Successful Indigenous Leaders and Their Impact on Community Development

Building Leadership Capacity

- Leadership Development Programs Tailored for Indigenous Communities
- Encouraging Leadership from Within:
  - Empowering Youth and Emerging Leaders

The Role of Boards in Indigenous Governance

- Overview of Governance Structures in Indigenous Communities
- Importance of Inclusivity and Representation on Boards

Best Practices in Board Governance

- Transparency and Accountability
- Cultural Competence in Decision-Making
- Balancing Tradition with the Need for Innovation

Effective Strategic Planning Models

- Participatory Strategic Planning:
  - Involving the Community
- Balancing Short-Term Goals with Long-Term Vision

Case Studies in Strategic Planning and Leadership

- Highlighting successful examples of Indigenous communities implementing strategic plans
- Showcasing the impact of strong leadership on community development

Challenges and Solutions

- Addressing common challenges in strategic planning and governance
- Sharing innovative solutions and lessons learned

Cultural Competence in Leadership

- Strategies for integrating cultural competence into leadership practices
- The importance of preserving and promoting cultural identity in leadership roles

Indigenous Wisdom in Governance

- Incorporating traditional knowledge into contemporary governance
- Recognizing the interconnectedness of land, culture, and community well-being

Collaborative Decision-Making

- The value of collaborative decision-making in Indigenous governance
- Building consensus and fostering community engagement

Tools and Resources for Strategic Planning and Governance

- Available resources, toolkits, and support networks for Indigenous communities
- Collaborative initiatives and partnerships for community development

Looking Forward: A Call to Action

- Encouraging participants to take what they've learned back to their communities
- Emphasizing the importance of ongoing collaboration and knowledge-sharing

Q&A Session

- Inviting questions and discussions from the audience

Closing Remarks

- Expressing gratitude for the opportunity to share insights
- Reiterating the importance of empowered Indigenous leadership, strategic planning, and effective governance

Contact Information

- Providing contact details for further inquiries and collaboration opportunities

www.wjgroup.ca

2150 Serrento Lane
West Bank, BC V4T 3G3

Eugene Whiskeyjack
Principal

Mobile: 780.893 9090
Email: eugene@wjgroup.ca

Ken Hein, FCMC
Management Consultant

Mobile: 780.991-8646
Email : ken.hein@soundmc.com